The time has come for us to go,
 It has been long but we all know,
 That it was well worth waiting for,
 And we are ready to . . .
 STAND PROUD.

The moments seemingly long have really shown
 That the nights of struggle have brought just reward to . . .
 STAND PROUD.

Eons of time drift, causing reminiscence of past games,
 Where victory coupled with victory's defeat
 Have caused smiles, tears, earthy moans,
 But we hold our heads high and . . .
 STAND PROUD.

To win,
 And have the joy of winning again and again and again.

We close our eyes and think back to times when
 We just couldn't wait,
 For a meeting or date with someone that brought out
 A voice of pride . . . for us to Think new,
 Be ourselves,
 STAND PROUD.

The psychedelic groove,
 Afros and daskikis,
 Tend to prove that we are again
 finding ourselves.
 So we . . .
 STAND PROUD.

Our boys will soon be facing,
 A test of how they're rating,
 In their manhood and their courage,
 And their love for this great country.
 This will be their trial,
 This will be their time to . . .
 STAND PROUD.

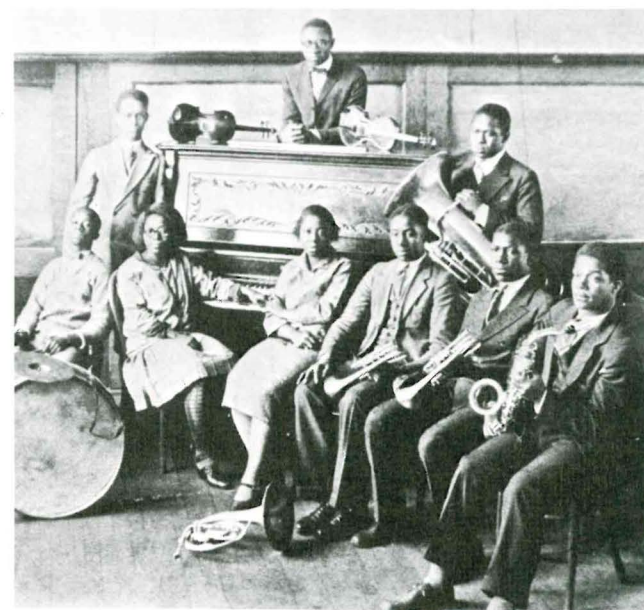

The difference in the generations,
Has brought about many changes,
In the teenager's attitudes and phrases,
Like "Can you dig it, baby?"

But adults have always told us,
To be ourselves regardless,
No matter what the problem,
Always . . .

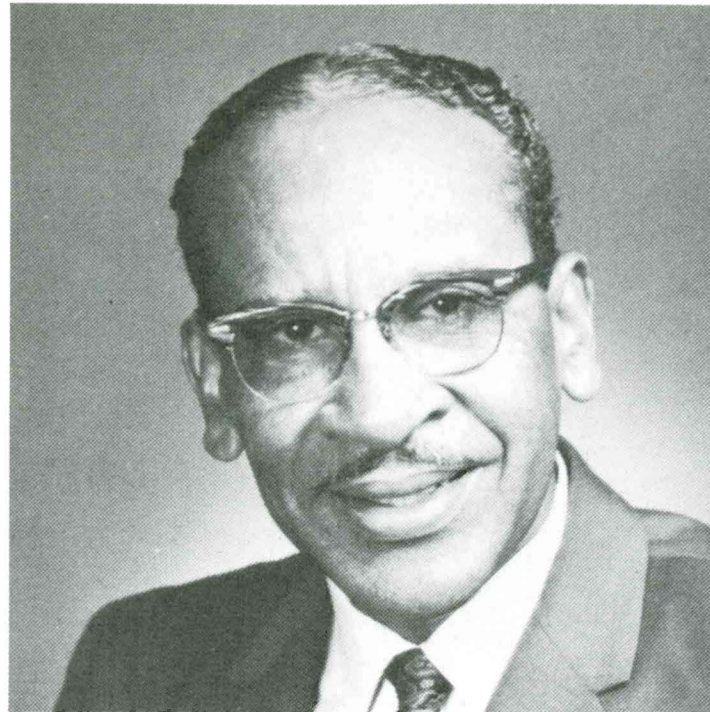

STAND PROUD.

The very first day has become the last,
Now to new horizons our footsteps must pass,
The door is open,
The time is now to . . .
STAND PROUD.

DEDICATION

Mr. Milton Calloway

It is with heartfelt gratitude for the many services to Huntington High School that we, the 1969 senior class of Huntington High School dedicate the 1969 HUNTINGTONIAN to Mr. Milton Calloway, English teacher and senior class advisor.

Mr. Calloway is a native of Baltimore, Maryland, where he attended Morgan College Academy. He received his Bachelor's Degree from Howard University in 1929 and his Master's Degree from Columbia University in English in 1942.

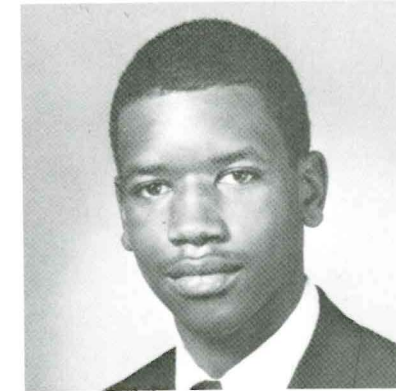

In addition to teaching English 9 and 10 to many of our class, Mr. Calloway is a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the N.N.E.A., the N.E.A., the Pan Hellenic Council of the Peninsula, and teaches the Men's Bible class of First Baptist Church on 23rd Street.

Mr. Calloway is known to many seniors, past and present, for the many invaluable services that he has unselfishly rendered. He has given freely of his time and effort to such things as senior ring orders, cap and gown rentals, and has played a major role in every senior class activity from the senior class banquet to commencement for the past 23 years.

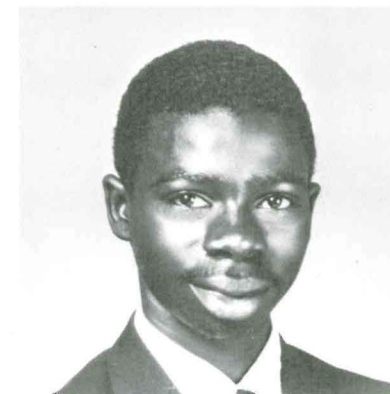

Here, Mr. Calloway is assisting Robert Berkley, Brenda Stegall and Annie Riddick in choosing the correct ring size, one of his many duties as senior class advisor.

Let it be for things undone . . .

THE MEN BEHIND OUR YEARBOOK

Diligence, perseverance and initiative in new ideas are the guiding lights of Mr. James Johnson, the 1969 HUNTINGTONIAN advisor. Although this is Mr. Johnson's first year as yearbook advisor, he has shown great ability in organizing and carrying out the many duties of the HUNTINGTONIAN advisor.

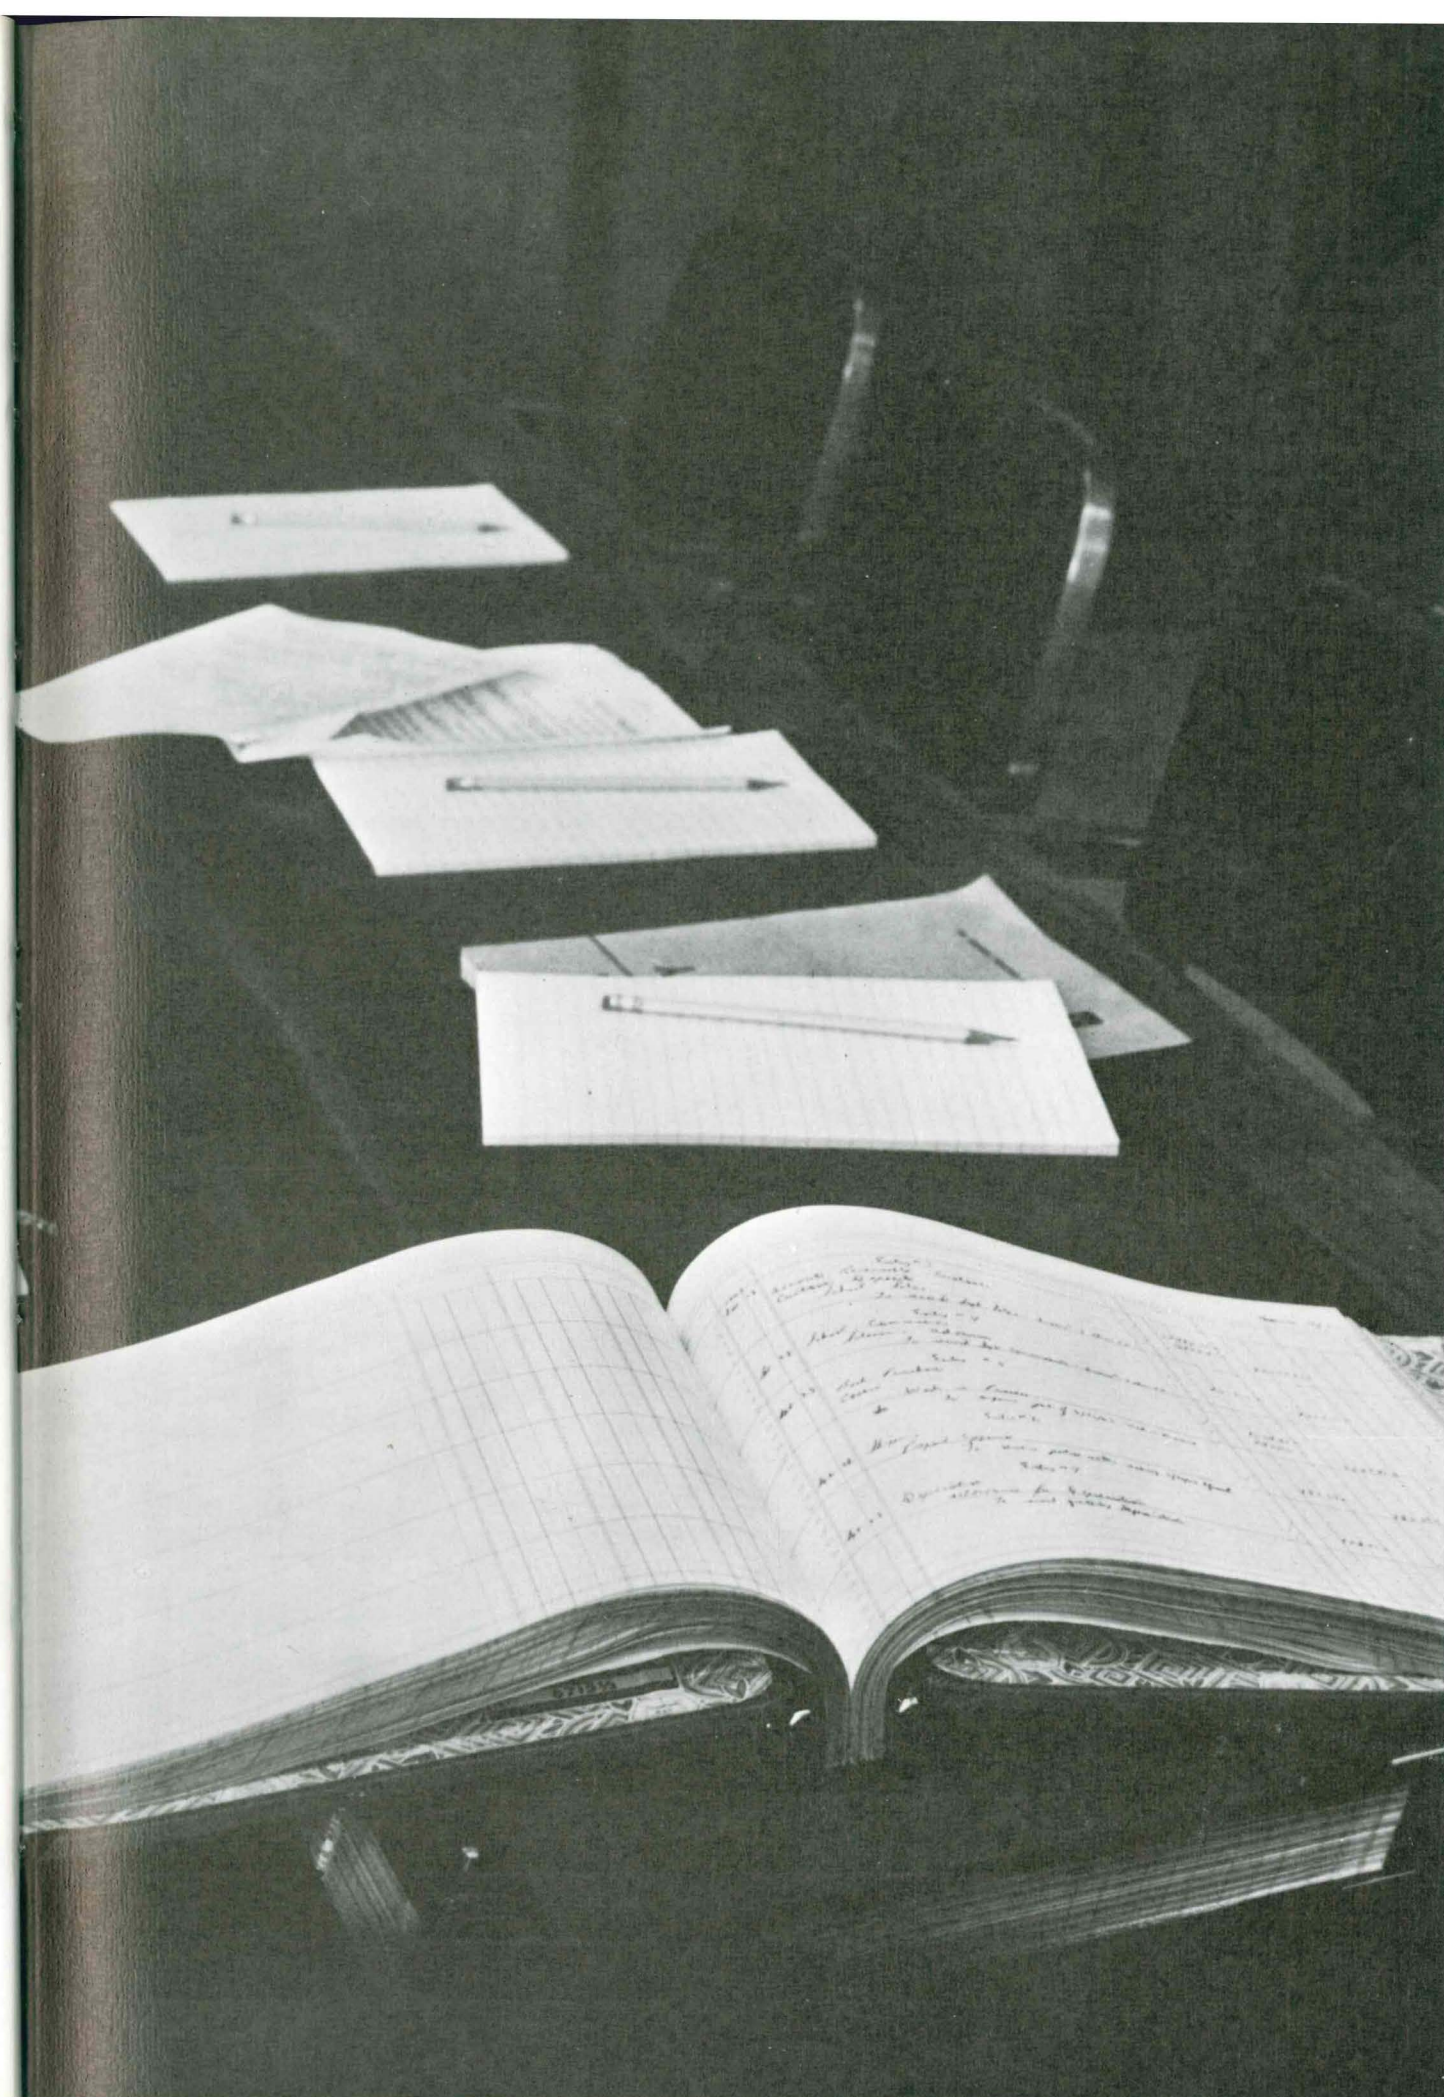

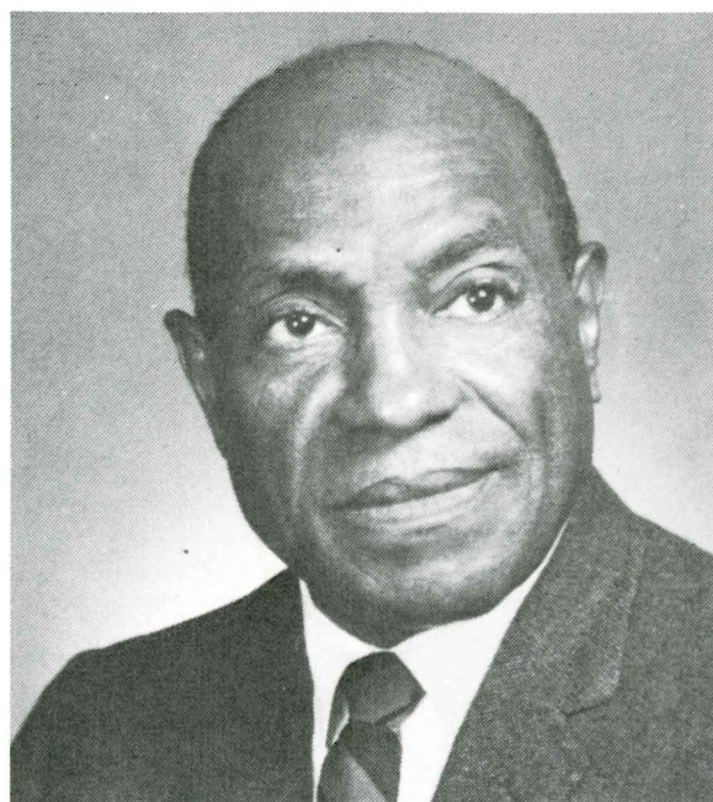

Known fondly as "Buddy" and "J. T." among seniors and underclassmen alike, Mr. Johnson is a familiar figure around the campus. He serves as eighth grade counselor, and is very popular among faculty members as well as students.

Therefore, we the 1969 graduating class of Huntington High School, extend a hearty "Thanks" to you, Mr. Johnson, for your many services to our school.

Mr. Noel J. Pleasants has worked for the past twenty-three years as advisor to the HUNTINGTONIAN advertising staff. Through his efforts, the members of the advertising staff are able to make the annual the financial success that it is.

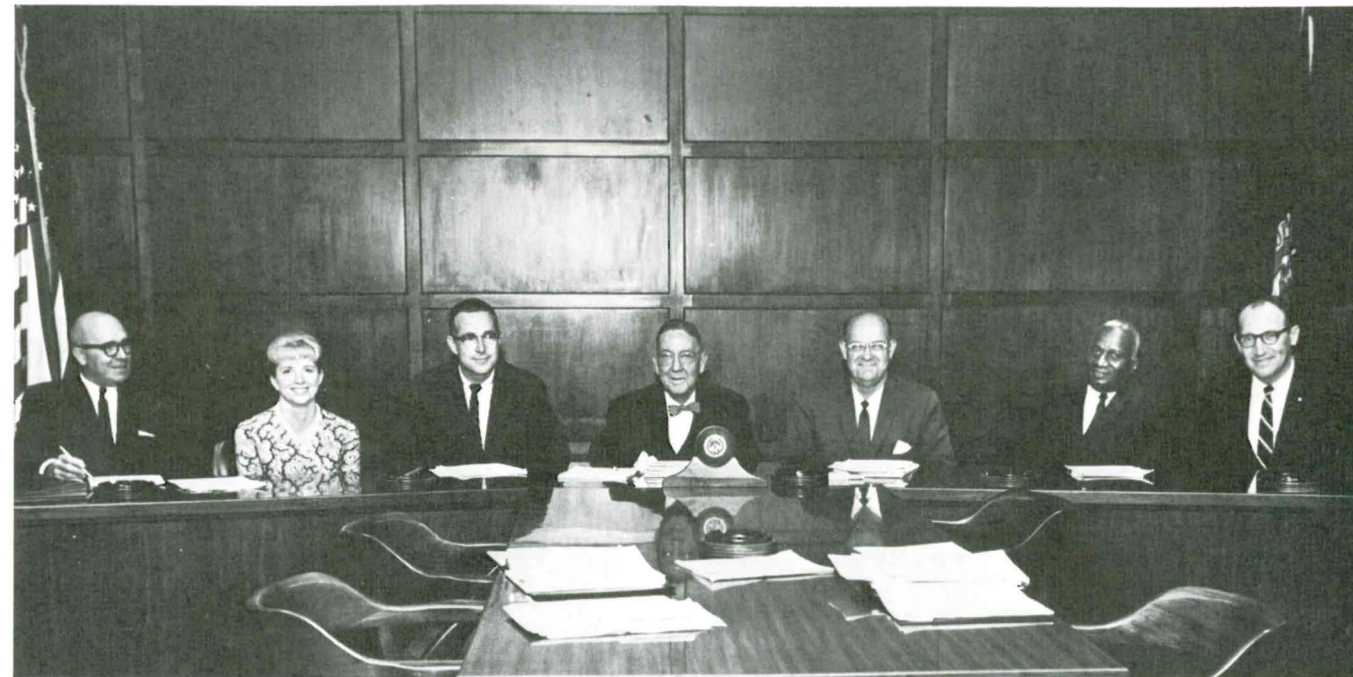

Mr. Pleasants works assiduously and gives freely of his time to our advertising staff members, in training and such things as tallying receipts or distributing yearbooks.

Consequently, the 1969 graduating class doff their hats and say, "Thank you, Mr. Pleasants, for a job well done."

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Newport News School Board is comprised of seven members dedicated to the roles of advancing and improving the public school system. The members of the board have worked diligently in aiding and advising school administrators towards a more progressive school system. Their knowledge in the field of education has proved invaluable to the many persons affiliated with the Newport News School System. Therefore, the Senior Class of Huntington High School wishes to salute you.

A PROFILE OF OUR PRINCIPAL

The basic job of any principal is to see that a school is run effectively and efficiently. Mr. Scales serves as the chief administrator of funds, personnel selector, disciplinarian for the students, coordinator of all school curriculums, and above all, a mentor for the Huntington family.

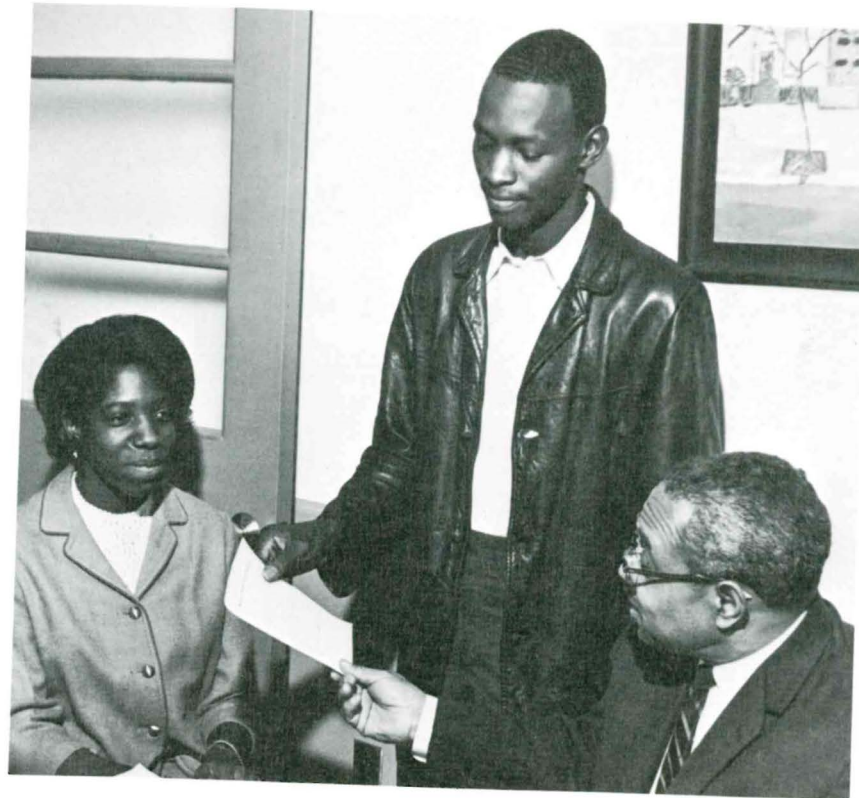

In addition to serving as chief administrator in the school, Mr. Scales is an invaluable advisor to faculty as well as students.

Here, Mr. Carter seeks Mr. Scales' help in a schedule problem.

Mr. Scales also serves as the chief host at student assemblies and all school programs. Here, he takes part in the induction banquet sponsored by the Keyettes Club in the school cafeteria.

OUR ASSISTANT

Mr. Johnson often finds it necessary in the course of a day's work to resort to disciplinary actions as is the case with Sandra Powell and Daniel Tyson.

Though he sometimes finds it necessary to administer disciplinary action, Mr. Johnson feels that this type of action helps to make Huntington students better individuals. He is very concerned with the welfare of each student he talks with.

Mr. Johnson is also involved in curricular planning as well as other vital programs necessary to the smooth operation of Huntington.

MR. C. C. JOHNSON

PRINCIPALS

Mr. Holmes, one of our assistant principals, takes time from his busy schedule to pose for our roving camera.

Known for his friendly but stern character, Mr. Holmes is respected by the entire student body not only as assistant principal, but also as a person.

A LOOK AT OUR

Huntington must add to its list of assets its guidance counselors. The guidance counselors, under the directorship of Mrs. Mildred Wilson, provide invaluable services to the student body and faculty. Countless times they are called upon for the utilization of their skills in the areas of class placements, class scheduling, interpretation of standardize tests, college and job applications, and many more. A vote of thanks must be given to these counselors; Mr. J. T. Johnson, Mrs. M. Wilson, Mrs. L. Lipscombe, Mr. R. Hearst, Mr. C. Carter and Miss Mabel Smith.

Mr. Hearst, as tenth grade counselor, finds that there is a great deal of paper work involved in being in such a rewarding position.

GUIDANCE COUNSELORS

Ninth grade counselor, Miss Mabel Smith, makes out a class schedule as one of her many services to the ninth grade class.

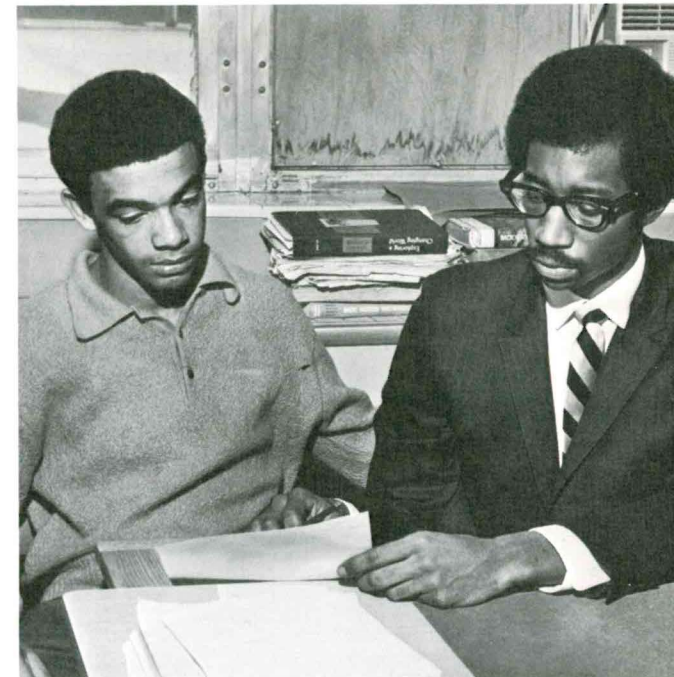

As senior counselor, Mr. Carter must check all seniors' transcripts to make sure that each student meets the qualifications for graduation.

Mrs. M. Wilson, director of guidance, stresses the importance of counseling for students and the utilization of this service by the parents.

In the midst of her daily work, Mrs. Lipscombe takes time out to pose for our photographer.

Mr. J. T. Johnson takes time out from paper work to give valuable counseling to Richard Owens.

OUR SECRETARIES—THE NERVE

Mrs. Cherry

Mrs. Seabron

The accuracy displayed by Mrs. Kea's work has proved to be a most invaluable asset to the school.

Mrs. Cherry, a member of the secretarial staff, sorts the morning mail as Mr. Scales looks on.

Efficiency is the word one may use to describe the work done by Mrs. James.

Mrs. Kea

Mrs. James

CENTER OF HUNTINGTON HIGH

Miss Jones, as one of her daily chores, places the mail in the teachers boxes after it has been sorted.

Miss Jones

Mrs. Mask

Mrs. Mask, aside from her job as a secretary, also assists in the library. Miss Williams, on the right, is the assistant librarian.

Mrs. Marshall

Typing the absentee list for the day is one of the many daily chores of Mrs. Marshall, one of our most competent secretaries.

NURSING STAFF AT HUNTINGTON

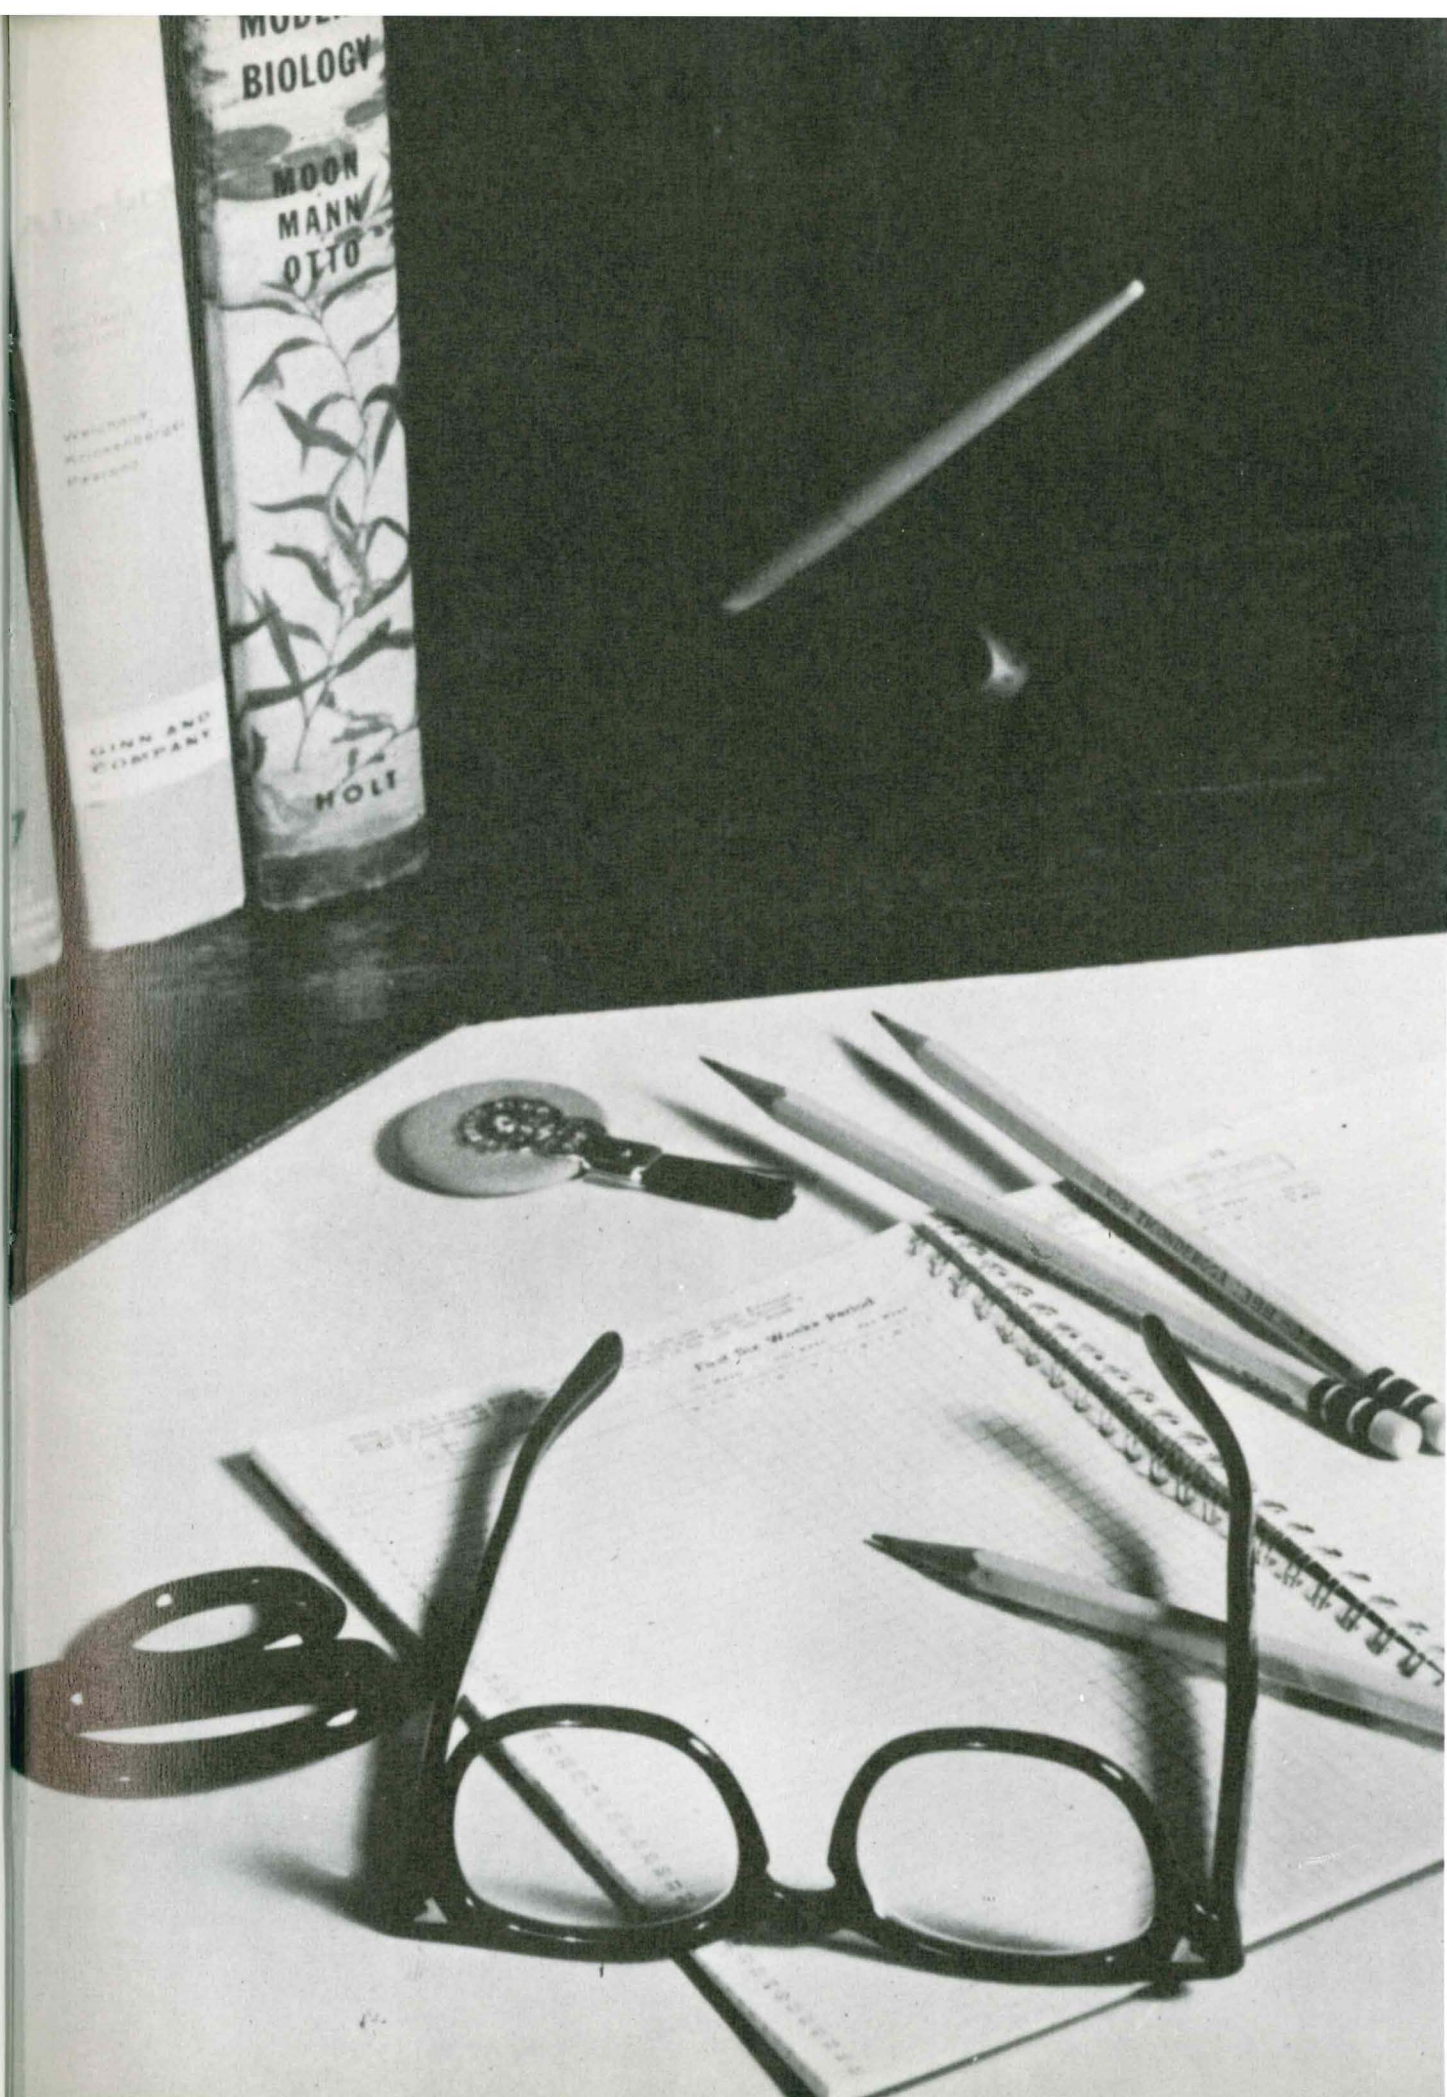

Checking the temperature of Larry Thomas, Mrs. Holloway performs one of her many tasks as school nurse.

During the course of the day Mrs. Holloway encounters many patients. The assistance she gives ranges from giving an aspirin for a headache to bandaging a minor cut. The students find a comfort in Mrs. Holloway's smiling face and gentle nature as she goes about her work.

Mrs. E. Clark, working under the Title I Program, subsidized by HEW, visits the school weekly to offer her medical assistance to Huntington High students. Together she and Mrs. Holloway provide superb health services for Huntington students.

Mrs. E. Clarke applies iodine to a minor cut of Donna Black.

Leading the class of 1970 through their junior year were Janis Roddy, assistant secretary; James Gillespie, treasurer; Victoria Harris, secretary; Gerald King, president; Vivian Sullivan, vice president.

JUNIORS PREPARE FOR SENIOR YEAR

The junior class began making plans for organization and their senior year during the early half of the first semester. Starting with the election of officers, juniors planned activities that would cover the junior and senior years. Among these was the inevitable PROM. It was decided that the Prom would be sponsored by both juniors and seniors, and the plan was met with enthusiastic anticipation.

The 1970 graduating class has made many preparations for the busy whirlwind called Senior Year. Ringorders, College Board Exams and college applications are but a few of the many things that befall a junior, but it is a fantastic experience, nevertheless.

Mrs. L. J. Love, the junior class chairman, has shown her leading ability by working diligently along with the junior class in planning and promoting ideas and activities. Aside from her duties as junior class advisor, Mrs. Love teaches English and works on the HUNTINGTONIAN staff.

Mrs. Love checks a class assignment in the library during her free period.

ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

Donna Black--Editor

When, in the course of human events, the oldest activity breaks with tradition and for the first time in its history publishes a book that is obviously avant-garde, a daring experiment in originality, and a decent respect for the opinions (expressed or not) of all who have joined in the noble task of producing the HUNTINGTONIAN, then those responsible should declare the reasons for the change. The rationale is far more profound than printing another mundane mass of print and pictures. The spirit of the 1969 HUNTINGTONIAN is basically an extension of the personalities and talents of the young Establishment who, in September 1968, pledged their lives, fortunes and academic standings to produce a MAGNUM OPUS, which was inevitable.

The Student Cooperative Association, through a comprehensive effort to train students for good citizenship in our school, community and country, strives to act as a liaison between the administration and the student body.

Since its beginning, the S.C.A. has sponsored many activities for the improvement of student-teacher relationships as well as programs stressing good leadership, citizenship and high moral standards.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. N. P. Grandberry, the S.C.A. has prospered and grown. It serves as a nucleus, guiding and directing all organizations and clubs here at Huntington.

In her second year as sponsor, Mrs. Grandberry continues to work faithfully and diligently, giving unselfishly of her time and talents to make our S.C.A. the best.

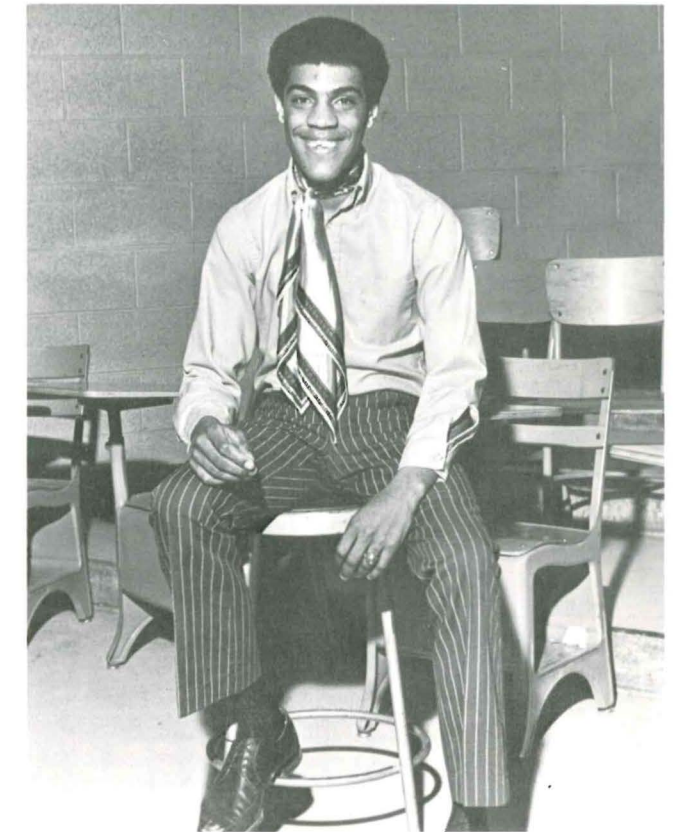

Her charming smile will always be remembered.

AN ACTIVE SCHOOL

Industrious, assiduous and relentless are only three of the many adjectives used to describe our 1968-69 S.C.A. president, Russell Owens. Known fondly as "Rusty" to the student body, Russell has shown his true leadership talent and natural ability to get along well with others.

Under the joint guidance of Mrs. Grandberry and Russell, the S.C.A. has sponsored leadership classes, school beautification programs, school clean-up campaigns, and many other activities which make for a better Huntington.

So, because of your untiring spirit and unflagging faith in Huntington, we, the 1969 senior class salute you, Russell Owens, and say "Thank you" for a job well done.

LEADERSHIP CLASS TEACHERS

In its second year of service to the school, the Leadership class began with a large number of 8th and 9th grade students who are interested in obtaining the qualities and skills of a good leader.

The students were then exposed to four aspects of Leadership--Teen Government, Parliamentary Procedure, Boy-Girl Relations and Qualities of a Good Leader. After completing the prescribed courses, the students participated in a Commencement Program, followed by a Luncheon. Guest speaker was Mr. W. Pearson, Principal of Virginia State School.

Officers included Linda Mercado, Chairman; Bonita Everett, Co-Chairman; and Joyce Melvin, Secretary.

Mrs. N. P. Grandberry takes time from her busy schedule to assist and guide the Chairman of the Leadership class in preparing tomorrow's leaders.

REGULAR ATTENDANCE IS THE GOAL OF THE ATTENDANCE COMMITTEE

The objectives of the Attendance Committee is to encourage students to attend school regularly. Under the direction of Mr. J. Baker, the committee endeavors to combat low absenteeism and drop-outs at Huntington. By stimulating students to attend school, the Committee strives to promote better scholastic achievement at Huntington. During "Perfect Attendance Week," the Committee awards buttons and certificates to students having maintained perfect attendance for the entire school year.

Checking the morning absentee cards is only one of the duties of the attendance staff in the office. Shown are Linda Mercado, Donna Black and Barbara Manly.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

To encourage high school students to become good leaders in the field of business is the purpose of the Future Business Leaders of America Club. Most of the members are enrolled in at least one of the courses in business education, such as personal typing, bookkeeping, general business or shorthand. The members of the FBLA take part in beneficial projects for the advancement of business.

One of the most active clubs at Huntington, the FBLA spearheads several projects. Among these are printing Homecoming programs, sponsoring Annual Dress Right Week, tours, banquet and installation service, bulletin boards and participating in all school spirit activities.

A long time member of the FBLA, Georgia Brown helps to complete a bulletin board.

MIRROR STAFF

UP-DATED MIRROR DRAWS LARGEST SUBSCRIPTION

This year, under the direction of co-editors Patricia Cherry and William Marks, the Mirror, the school newspaper, has received the largest subscription order in its history. This is due mainly to the new format used by the Mirror Staff--which is youthful, appealing and full of news that the student body finds interesting. From the biting cynicism of columnist Eric Joyner to the lighter side of Potpourri by Thaddeus Madden, this year's Mirror offers something for even the most discerning student.

Gathering news and interesting information, soliciting ads, interviewing and providing entertainment as well as educational articles for the readers are only a few of the many duties of the Mirror Staff as they compile the school newspaper. They are under the competent supervision of Mr. Harold Przygocki. In his first year as advisor, Mr. Przygocki has shown that hard work and patience will reap a good thing--our Mirror.

Mr. Przygocki confers with co-editors Patricia Cherry and William Marks.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

To study and to identify the qualities, traits and aptitudes which are basic or related to successful teaching are the aims of the Future Teachers of America. The club also strives to acquire an understanding of the history and development of our public schools, their purposes and objectives, and an appreciation of the contributions they have made to our democratic free society.

Under the direction of Miss L. Weaver, the club has participated in such projects as the observance of American Education Week, and special programs are presented to the school and at the F.T.A. meetings. Recently the FTA spearheaded the Orientation Program for underprivileged children at Dunbar Elementary School.

Miss Lillian Weaver, sponsor of the FTA club, gives of her time and effort to train the teachers of the future. She was recently presented with a plaque from the Lillian M. Weaver Chapter of the National Honor Society for outstanding service to the school and to the community.

TOMORROW'S HOMEMAKERS PREPARE

The Future Homemakers of America Club serves as a medium through which young ladies may learn the economics of managing a home. To provide wholesome individual and group recreation, to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership, to foster the development of creative leadership in home and community life--these are only a few of the many purposes that the FTA uses as its guide in planning activities and programs.

Sponsoring assemblies and other related activities are only a few of the many functions planned by the FHA. The highlight of the 1968-69 school year was FHA Day. The program featured a fabulous all-day fashion show featuring clothes made by the home-making students and a Crafts display. The day proved a great success, and was enjoyed by all.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Mrs. Booker, the sponsor of the FHA club, works hard to make the club a success.

SCIENCE—KEY TO THE FUTURE

The purposes of the Science Club are to instill in its members the importance or value of science and to afford the students with an opportunity to observe different facets of science in operation.

This organization is dedicated to the perfection of skills that will make a greater and better society. The members of the club are striving to acquire knowledge and skill in lab work as well as desk work which may well be the key to the future.

Under the auspices of Miss B. J. Barham, who is working in her first year as club advisor, the club sponsors field trips, assemblies, and the Annual Science Fair. The club also participates in the Virginia Junior Academy of Science Conference.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

The Mathematics Club is dedicated to strengthening the mathematical interest of students throughout Huntington. The club also provides an outlet for challenge among students whose interest lies in solving intricate problems.

Members of the club find it very informative, and it serves as a means to obtain up-to-date information in the field of mathematics.

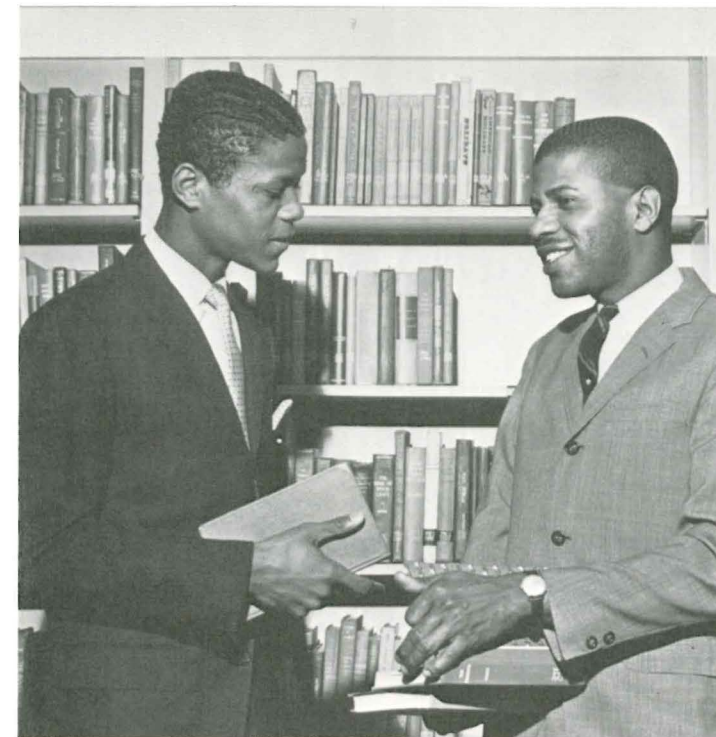

MATHEMATICS—TODAY'S CHALLENGE

Mrs. F. Lawrence, the Math Club sponsor, finds time in her busy schedule to guide the members of the club towards a better understanding of the language and usage of math. The club sponsors assemblies, attends symposiums and plans to participate in the Virginia High School League Math-Science Conference.

GIRLS' CULTURE CLUB

THE GIRLS' AND BOYS'

"Culture is the heart of the country." The members of the Girls' and Boys' Culture Club feel that a closely knit society must be established on a cultural basis as well as many other building blocks. In order to establish this type of society here at Huntington High School, these young ladies and young men seek to enhance the cultural growth of their student body. In their endeavors, they work together to provide different types of beneficial contributions, such as sponsoring assemblies geared toward raising the level of culture in students, posting attractive bulletin boards, and spearheading campaigns that are constructive to the school.

Aside from working within the clubs, the members of both clubs work along with members of other clubs at Huntington to create a cultural atmosphere in the school, community and nation. Under the direction of Miss A. Foriest and Mr. W. Wingfield, these students have been able to intensify the cultural program at Huntington.

FORENSIC SOCIETY

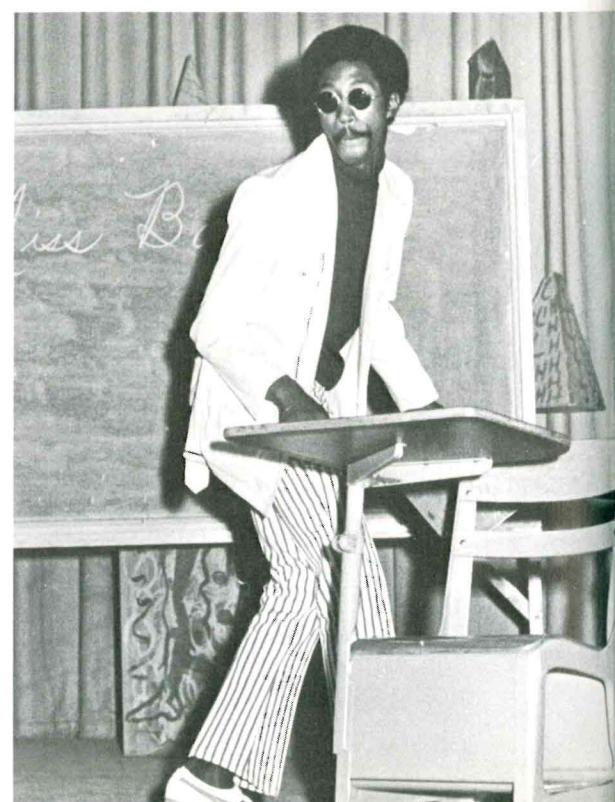

DEBATING SOCIETY RECEIVES HONORS

The Huntington High School Forensic Society is made up of students who are interested in public speaking and debating. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. J. Haltiwanger, the society has rapidly become one of distinction. The Varsity team has participated in debates at the University of Virginia and the College of William and Mary, and received many honors and awards at both debates.

The Forensic Society sponsors various school activities, and this year in conjunction with the S.C.A., presented the "Faculty Frolics", a fund-raising project which was very successful and enjoyed by all.

The society also plans to participate in up-coming debates in the Virginia High School League District and State Meets.

"J. T." Johnson displays a hitherto hidden talent for acting, as he clowns in a scene from "Up the Down Staircase" presented in the Faculty Frolics.

Members of the Varsity team relax for a few moments--then back to research, research and more RESEARCH.

SOCIAL STUDIES CLUB

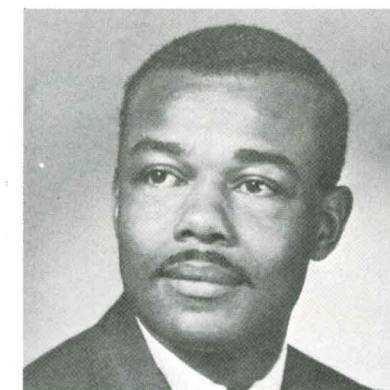

SOCIAL STUDIES CLUB KEEPS ABREAST OF WORLD AFFAIRS

In today's complex society, sound fundamental ideas in government and other social sciences must be developed on the part of students at an early age. Under the leadership of Mr. I. Robinson and Mrs. I. Baker, the Social Studies Club strives to promote interest in acquiring a strong sense of civic responsibility by keeping abreast with current situations throughout the world.

To help the students discover the necessity of having a knowledge of current events in our ever-expanding world, the Social Studies Club sponsors assemblies during the year and celebrates American History Week and Negro History Week with the preparation of bulletin boards, posters and various educational trips to points of interest.

ART CLUB

Inspiring, teaching and guiding are the words describing the work of the Art Club. In addition to keeping the school bulletin boards attractive the club provides backdrops for assembly programs and school productions.

The Art Club also provides students with information concerning the vocational and opportunities in the field of art and gives the advantages of art as a means of using leisure time wisely.

Wood carving is only one of the many skills offered in first year art class.

BE ALL YOU CAN—READ

The Library Club, under the sponsorship of Miss J. Williams, encourages students to increase their reading interest and strives to improve the library program in the school.

National Book Week and National Library Week are celebrated through the presentation of programs and the attractive display of posters and bulletin boards throughout the school.

The library to some means concentration, but to others, "frustration."

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Lillian M. Weaver Chapter of the Senior National Honor Society hopes to develop in Huntington students a desire for competent leadership skills and strives to promote the development of good character. The National Honor Society is open to those students with a three-point average and possess qualities of leadership, scholarship, citizenship and service.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Mamye Bacote, the National Honor Society is a successful school organization, composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors, and is one of the largest organizations of this kind among high schools in the area. The club sponsors assemblies and during National Honor Society Week, inductees and old members perform many services to the school and the community.

TODAY'S STUDENT—

Mrs. Bacote checks a few of her many plans and preparations for National Honor Society Week, which was held March 24th through the 30th this year.

JUNIOR NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Effie M. Green Chapter of the Junior National Honor Society is comprised of eighth and ninth grade students. It strives to promote an interest in scholarship and a desire to acquire good leadership abilities and outstanding character in students at Huntington. Students in this organization have scholastic averages of "B" or above.

The Junior Honor Society attempts to encourage the student body in obtaining high scholastic averages by sponsoring assemblies, planning trips and preparing attractive, informative displays and bulletin boards.

Mrs. I. Baker, the sponsor, works diligently to make the organization the success that it is today.

TOMORROW'S LEADER

This year, the Junior Honor Society observed "Miss Mabel Smith Day." Miss Smith is the founder of the Junior Honor Society here at Huntington, and has worked hard to make it a success.

Miss Smith is presented with a scrapbook and corsage from Sheryl Mann and Michael Terry in the photo at left.

Members of the cast of "R.U.R." show emotional strain when confronted with the probable take-over of the world by mechanical men and women.

Here, the drunken Ben Gant threatens his wife, Mrs. Gant, who has goaded him into action. The portrayal of Mr. and Mrs. Gant by Ray Millin and Sandra Washington, was beautifully acted and both were given a standing ovation.

Harry Blizzard explains details of a possible robot take-over in "R.U.R."

Larry Watson's portrayal of Ben Gant's inebriated pal brought down the house. He has acted in other plays such as "R.U.R."

THE DRAMA CLUB

Under the new sponsor, Mr. Leon Ivory, the Drama Club's fortunes have spiraled to new heights and has uncovered new stars. The Thespians took on tremendous acting roles and performed very well. Both productions have been great successes and have given the students a chance to express themselves in a variety of ways.

The French Club is composed of students who are interested in cultivating a greater understanding of the language and customs of the people of France.

The club sponsors many assemblies and school activities. Among them are the presentation of Foreign Language Day, in which the club displays many of the customs of the people of France.

Pupils hear and sing songs, and study customs of the French by the use of the Foreign Language Laboratory.

LA SOCIEDAD LATINO-AMERICANA

Languages perfected in any form require much study and concentration. The Spanish Club provides students with an opportunity to practice speaking and translating one of the most lyrical Romance Languages.

In conjunction with the French Club, the Spanish Club sponsors assemblies and other school activities and annually co-sponsors the Foreign Language Week here at Huntington.

Under the capable sponsorship of Senor David Lawrence, the club also gives students a chance to practice conversation in Spanish, one of the many basic skills needed to master a language.

Listening to responses from students in the foreign language laboratory, Miss Frazier instructs a pupil as to correct pronunciation.

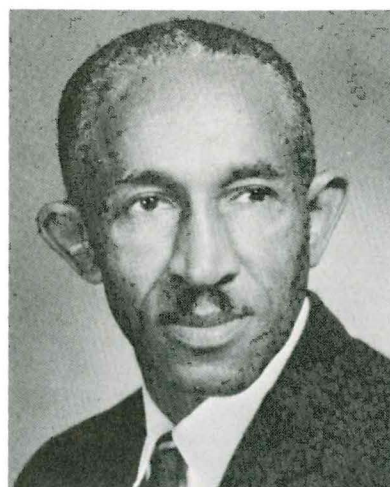

THE HOBBY CLUB

HOBBY CLUB

Learning the wise use of leisure time through such activities as photography, metal arts and crafts is an objective which binds members of the Hobby Club together. The club offers wide experience in many fields of vocational endeavor.

The club sponsors many activities during the school year. This year the club has planned field trips, a photo exhibit and will participate in an open house which will be held here at school.

Under the supervision of Mr. Ralph McGhee, the club provides many opportunities for its members to apply their skills in one of the many club activities. Photographers are frequently asked to work with the news media in the production of the school newspaper and HUNTINGTONIAN.

HEALTH CAREERS CLUB— PROMOTING GOOD HEALTH

In its first year at Huntington, the Health Careers Club is made up of students aspiring to jobs in the field of medical science. Members of the Health Careers Club strive to promote good hygiene, and stress the importance of a sound physical constitution.

As members of the Health Careers Club, they receive valuable information related to requirements for becoming a nurse, in addition to the close association with people already in the profession. All in all, the Health Careers Club has a good thing going.

The Practical Nurses enjoy a little good-natured kidding before leaving school to attend classes at Pembroke High School.

KEYETTE CLUB

The Keyette Club, a newly formed club at Huntington, has as its purpose to bring together those girls who are dedicated to serve their school, community, and their country.

Members of the Keyette Club help to beautify the school by painting the trash cans in blue and white, the school colors, during their spare time.

PHYSICAL FITNESS— AN IMPORTANT PRINCIPLE OF HEALTH

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Without physical preparation, no student can function academically. Therefore, physical education plays a vital role, and in its third year at Huntington, the Girls' Athletic Association serves as an opportunity for girls to stay trim and fit. Teamwork, good sportsmanship and fair play are but a few of the good sportsmanship qualities exemplified by members of the G.A.A.

The girls participate in basketball, soccer, and other games, all of which make for a nation that is physically fit, mentally awake and morally straight.

Senior members of the Cheering Squad pose for our roving photographer. Shown are Janice Warren, Fab Carpenter, Joyce "PeeWee" Melvin and Wilhelmina Harvey.

HUNTINGTON HIGH SCHOOL PEP CLUB

PEP CLUB CHEERS TEAMS ON TO VICTORY

In its second year at Huntington, the SCA-sponsored Pep Club's purpose is to provide signs, posters, sponsor pep rallies, and generally aid the cheerleaders in keeping up the spirit and pep of the audience as well as the team in any competitive sport or game.

The Pep Club, made up of all grade levels, is a spirited organization that is known for its many antics. The members dress in costumes, wear badges, and do all the things that a spirit-minded Viking should.

Highlighting this season's spirit campaign was the introduction of the "Spirit Jug." The Spirit Jug is a symbol of the most class spirit. At its introduction in the first pep rally of the season, the Jug was awarded to the mighty Seniors, as a result of a cheering contest.

Another highlight of the '69 season was the Carver-Huntington football game pep rally. The Pep Club sponsored a mock funeral, in which the "defeated" Trojans were eulogized and buried. Both activities were a tremendous success, and were enjoyed by all.

Catherine Campbell, a member of the Varsity Cheering Squad, leaps high for the honor of Vikingland.

MORNING CLASS

INDUSTRIAL COOPERATIVE TRAINING

Industrial Cooperative Training provides students with an opportunity to experience some of the responsibilities facing them in their later life.

The students learn the basic skills needed for their chosen careers each day in a one hour training class. They then practice these skills on various jobs which will lead to their development.

The program is very beneficial to students who would like to learn the basic techniques of certain jobs before going into that respective field.

AFTERNOON CLASS

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLASSES

DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION OFFERS FIELDS OF

The Distributive Education program is designed to prepare the student for entry into the world of distribution. The course provides introductory information for students who plan to continue advanced training at post high school levels in business administration, merchandising, marketing, advertising, and related fields.

Prior to the actual on-the-job training, the preparatory program involves one class period daily for instruction and no scheduled work periods. During the second year, the student will have one period daily for classroom instruction and supervised on-the-job training in a retail wholesale or service-selling business.

Leonard Webster, Ass't Manager at White Cross, performs a few of his daily tasks.

Mr. Whiting, our roving photographer, poses with Elgin Wooden, an employee at Thom McAnn Shoe Store.

Ernest Woodson, a senior, takes a phone message, one of his duties as a messenger boy.

Anita Royal, another senior, works as a cashier at Arthur's Men's Shop.

TRAINING IN PROSPECTIVE EMPLOYMENT

Jonathan Jarmon, who is employed at Rich's, receives valuable tips from his boss. The D.E. training program provides many opportunities for students to gain much needed experience in consumer distribution.

A pleasant personality is important in meeting the public. Mr. Venable, D.E. Coordinator, displays a pleasing personality in action.

Phyllistine Harris displays the art of good salesmanship at Wilkin's.

Vocational Technical Training gives students the opportunity to take class-room training and on-the-job training.

Students who register for on-the-job training are able to work in the various occupational atmospheres.

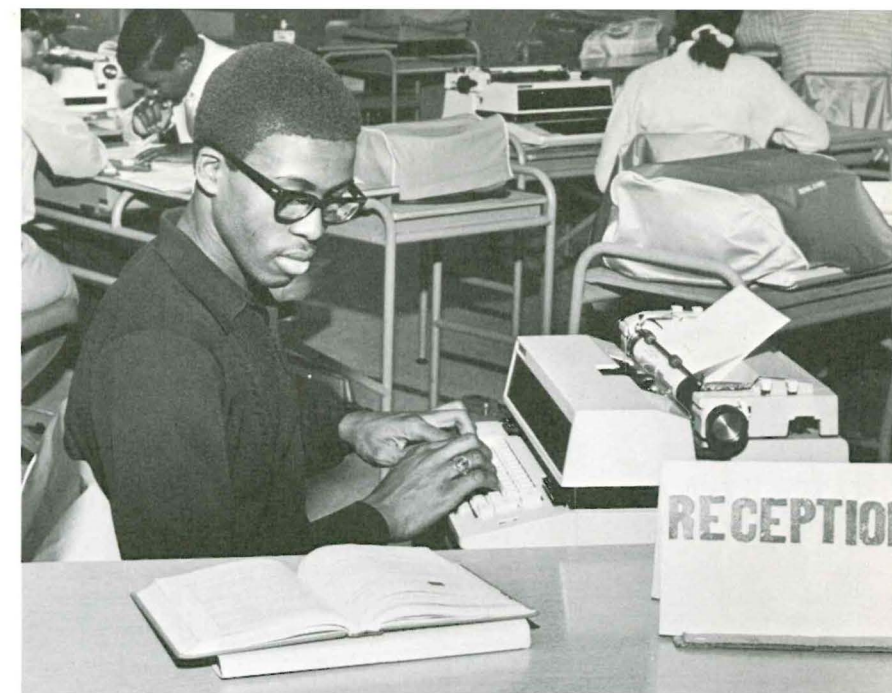

STUDENTS GAIN THROUGH V.O.T.

Students while in class are able to be instructed by Mr. J. R. Royster, on how they can improve their office skills.

Clerical Office Practice deals with the typical office problems that lead to job competence.

This program helps the students to learn correct office techniques, efficient problem-solving procedures, and good work habits.

HUNTINGTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

STRIKE UP THE BAND

A thunder of drums, a blare of trumpets, and HERE COMES THE BAND! The band at Huntington is one of the most popular in the area, and the high-stepping majorettes and marching members are met with cheering crowds wherever they go. Under the direction of Mr. W. Herring, the band plays in parades and assemblies, at the football games and in concerts.

Whether they're on the field or in a parade, the band provides fun and entertainment for all.

At left, a few of the H.H.S. majorettes.

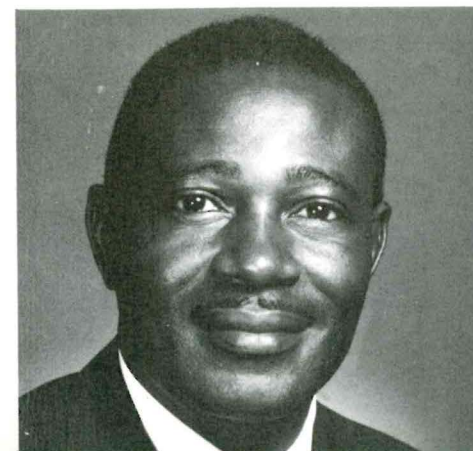

The marching band in action.

Senior members of the Band and Majorette Squad pose for our roving photographer. Keeping school spirit is a big job, and our SENIORS are very capable in holding in the tradition of Huntington.

The Marching Band has distinguished itself many times in parades and on the football field. Here, a close-up of Jevie Hill, Judith Scott, Deborah Sanford and Paul Holloman show what it's all about.

Edgar Henry, the Drum Major at Huntington, was chosen because of his outstanding marching abilities. At right, Edgar strikes one of his most famous stances. Along with head majorette Ricky Grimes, the two provide much entertainment for spectators at parades and football games.

Mr. Wray Herring, chairman of the Music Department, devotes his time and energy to the Marching, Symphonic, Stage and Concert Bands. It is because of his untiring spirit and efforts that the bands are the great successes that they are today.

This year, for the first time, the Huntington High School Band has added a new feature to the seemingly perfect organization. Twelve flag twirlers were added to the majorette squad after approximately seventy girls auditioned for positions. These girls possess grace, charm and poise as well as marching ability, and are met with enthusiastic approval wherever they go.

The majorette squad is made up of twenty-seven girls, four of which are graduating seniors. The captain, Celestine Grimes, along with Mr. Herring, helps to direct and coordinate all marches and steps. We are indeed proud of our girls.

BAND ADDS NEW FEATURE— FLAG TWIRLERS

The members of the Stage band present jazz and contemporary selections, in addition to working with the Concert, Marching or Symphonic bands. Their music is old and new and appeals to all age groups. Mr. Herring is the director.

OF SINGING

The talented accompanist of the Choir, Albert Melton, is only a sophomore, but shows great promise as a leading figure in the world of music.

The Huntington High School Choir has become famous for its unvarying display of talent and musical expression. It is open to students who possess the required abilities in singing harmoniously with others and solo. Members work hard to achieve the beautiful harmony, and truly display the joy of singing at each performance.

Under the direction and leadership of Mr. Arthur Bouldin, the Choir has prospered and grown. They have been featured on television and have sung for various organizations in the community and state.

The Choir participates in the Annual Fine Arts Festival and renders an inspirational and beautiful Christmas Concert each year.

Mr. Arthur Bouldin

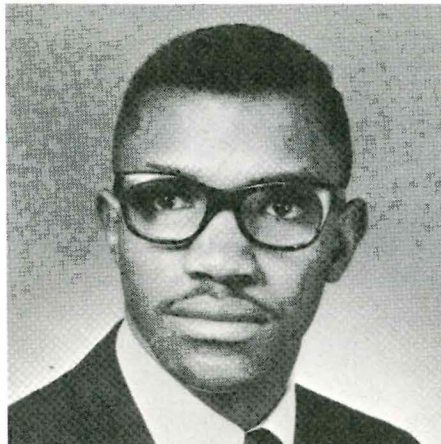

HUNTINGTON'S ORCHESTRA

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

The Huntington High School Orchestra provides students with an opportunity to learn to play as many as four different string instruments, as well as a chance to develop musical talents which would go undiscovered under normal circumstances.

Mr. Frederick Boyd, director of the Orchestra, adds his touch of musical talent and ability, which makes the Orchestra a success. Mr. Boyd encourages students to recognize and capitalize on their musical talent.

Mr. Boyd, director, puts in many long hours and gives unselfishly of his time and efforts to make the Orchestra a success. The Orchestra sponsors concerts and performs during assemblies and also participates in the Annual Fine Art Festival at Washington.

Pain, sweat and the absolute fatigue of the soul when one works against time and all odds--we of the Homecoming Committee knew these and we relished them. We were all eager to begin, and in the end wished that we had never seen a flower, never touched a streamer, never dreamed of ALOHA. The end was not in sight, and yet, we won.

Coach Madden patiently awaits the play . . .

Representing our student body of Huntington High School as Miss Homecoming for the school year 1968-69 was Miss Fabiola Carpenter.

VIKINGS DEFEAT NORCOM 27—18

The hard work, the fatigue, the blood sweat, and tears were almost at an end as the curtain rises on the 1968-69 Homecoming Coronation.

The stage was beautifully decorated and the players were in their places. The theme ALOHA rang throughout the auditorium and the countdown was begun.

Soon we will know who our Queen is, soon we will have reached our end.

A L O H A

Tension mounts, everyone holds their breath until the final moment. The audience is quiet and suddenly a burst of tears appear on one of the contestants face. Joyce Melvin throws her arms around the contestant to congratulate her.

Everyone then relaxes, and the tension is eased, because we now know that Fabiola Carpenter will reign as our Miss Homecoming for the year 1968-69.

FOOTBALL:

The 1968 football season saw the Viking's participating for the first time in the Virginia High School League (VHSL). After many impressive years in the Virginia Interscholastic Association (VIA), Coach Madden carried the team to a first 7--2--1 record which include his 201st victory.

The new league called for many adjust-

Involvement in the new league has established new rivalries which are sure to be as strong as those of the old VIA. Thus, another chapter is written.

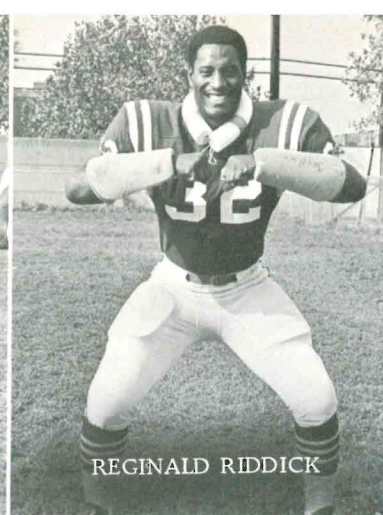

Quarterback Herman Greene called the signals of a play that later leads to a first down and a gain of 30 yards.

VIKING

The 1969 Viking Baseball season, like any other sport, has had its ups and downs. But, because of their dedication, desire to succeed and great stamina, the team is among the best in the state of Virginia.

Larry Roberts, the Most All-Around Baseball player this year, shows the perfect batting form as he makes one of his many hits.

Again, Larry Roberts and a player from Carver battle it out on second base, with Carver's player winning the battle.

BASEBALL

James Pearson makes a close first base.

William "Boo" Jones loses his hat in a race to first, with Toby Estees of Carver winning.

A look of defeat crosses Keyes' face as Larry Newall makes another home run.

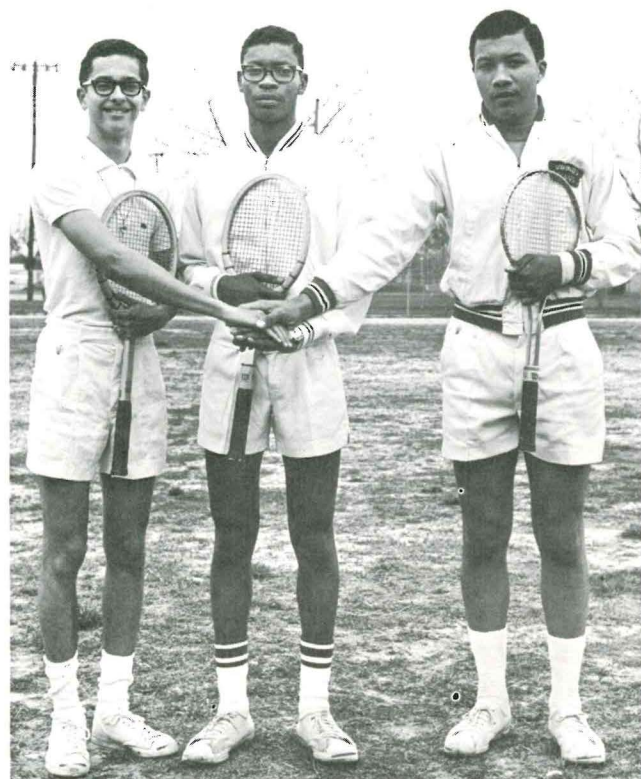

Making the switch from the VIA to the VHSL did not seem to hinder the playing efforts of David Williams. Once again playing the number one position he led them to an impressive 5--4 record. Using the form pictured at the right David was able to capture the District and Peninsular singles championships.

TENNIS TEAM

The winners of the VIA Eastern District Championship and runners-up at the VIA State Tournament made an impressive showing this year in the VHSL. Playing under new rules and regulations the Viking's squad posted a record of 5 wins and 4 losses to gain a third place position in the league.

To the dismay of the girl players that were VIA Eastern District Champs and runner-ups at the State Tournament there was no girl's tennis squad this year. The switch over to the VHSL was a deciding factor in the non-involvement of the girls in championship play this past season.

We began our Senior Class Picnic as sane, sophisticated SENIORS, but soon the sedate sophistication gave way to relaxation, fun and "GROOVIN".

getting the chaperones to groove, too . . .

and eventually, just being ourselves.

COMMENCEMENT

The Final Venture . . . a step into the Future. We have worked hard amidst tears, joy, sweat, and fatigue . . . to reach this pinnacle.

THE 1969 GRADUATING CLASS

A mood of pensiveness prevails . . .

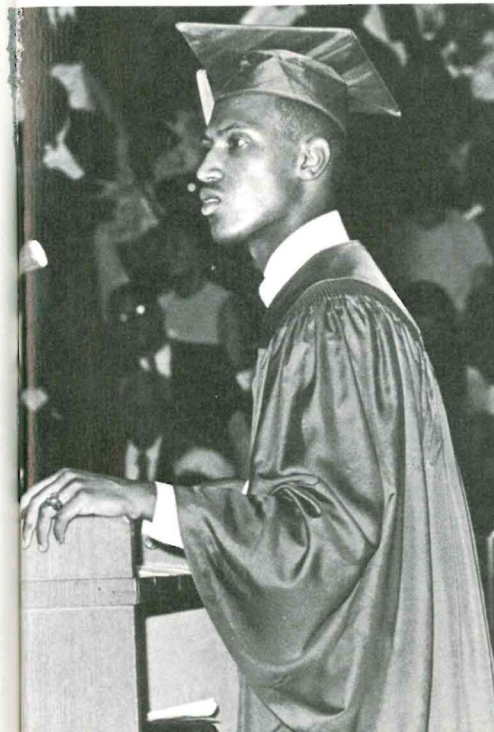

WE REMEMBER PAST TIMES . . .

THE FINAL VENTURE

As Michael West, class speaker, concludes . . .

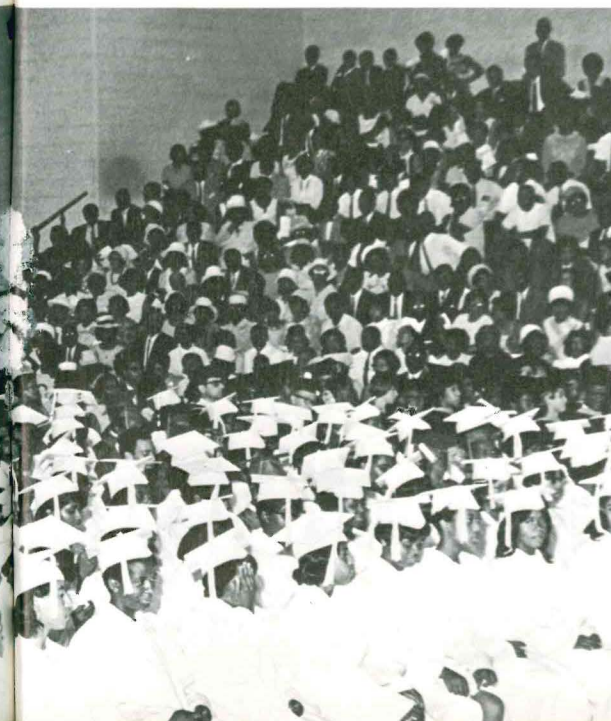

Miss Weaver reminisces . . .

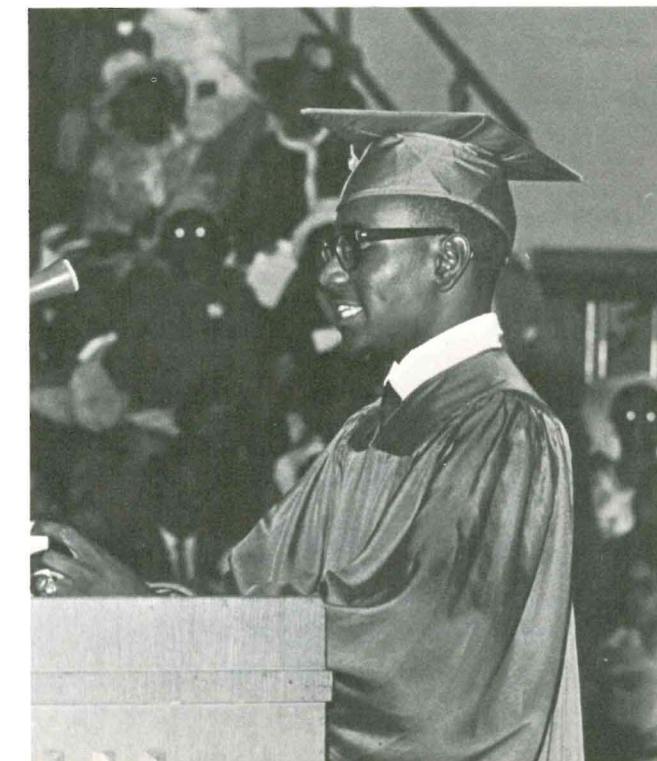

Miss Foriest ponders

AND LOOK TO THE FUTURE.

Harry Blizzard, salutatorian, delivers his last speech to the Class of 1969.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS ON PRODUCING A YEARBOOK

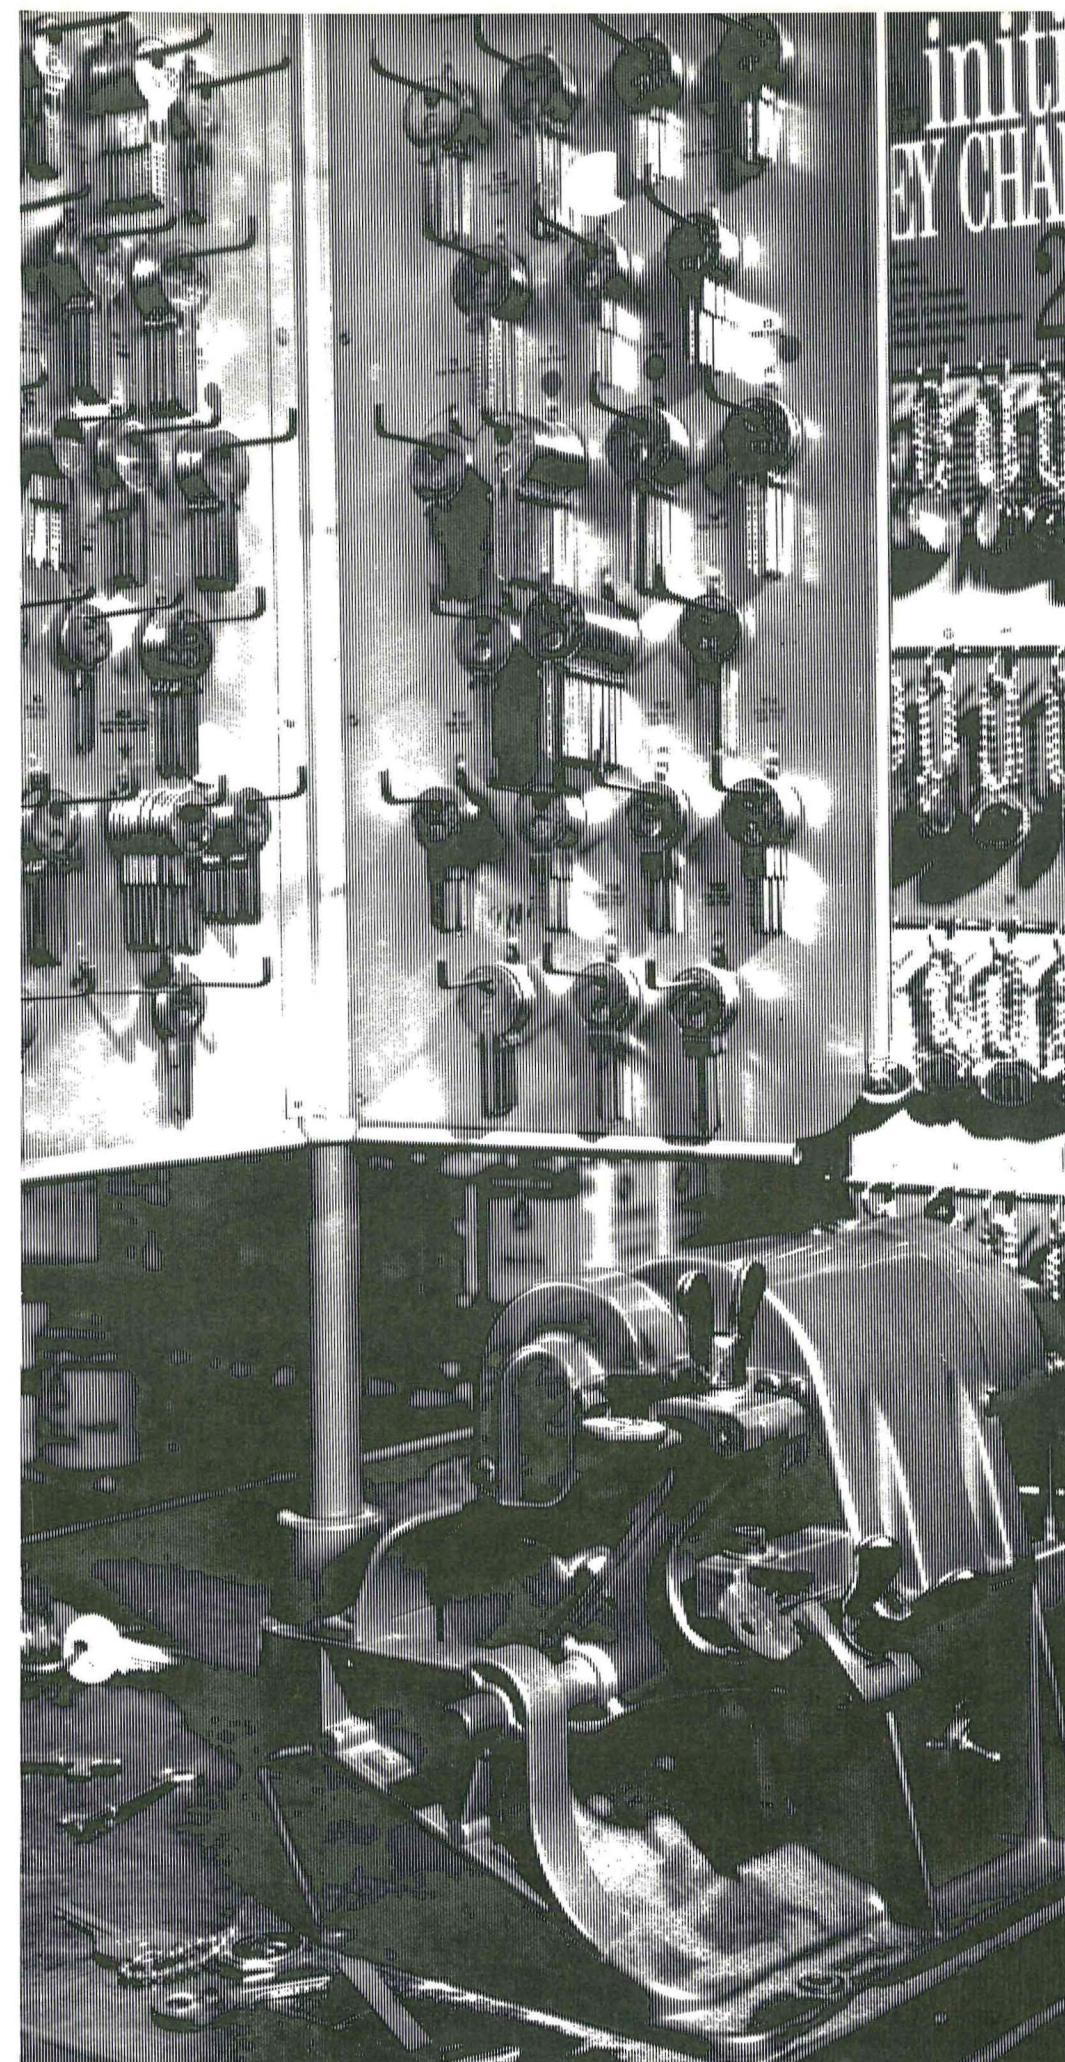

A yearbook is an adventure . . . an experience . . . a HAPPENING! When I first embarked on the long journey of producing and directing the 1969 edition of the HUNTINGTONIAN, I had no knowledge, no precognition of what lay ahead, and yet, I started out, untrained and untried . . . become enthusiastic, skilled, and most of all, PROUD. When self-assurance became a reality, I became PROUD. When the first set of copy had been sent in, I became PROUD. When the framework of an unrecognizable plan took shape into the 1969 Annual, I became PROUD.

This has taught me . . . I'll never forget the experience . . . and to those whose assistance has been invaluable--it is to you that I owe my allegiance.

THE CLASS PRESIDENT SPEAKS ABOUT THE CLASS OF '69

We of the 1969 Graduating Class are faced with many problems, many choices, and we must learn to cope with and live among the arduous rules and embellishments of modern man and society. There are many things that do not meet our exacting standards, but much of which can be changed to meet the demands of a rapidly changing world.

We are imbued with the desire to make the world of the future--our world--a place in which we all may be ourselves--individual, and yet united--TOGETHER. We will work and strive toward our goal, always remembering the past, and always remembering to
STAND PROUD.

GOOD SHIPS START HERE

Fine ships don't roll off a production line. They're built efficiently and well only by men whose skills and knowledge are broad. That's why Newport News begins at the beginning with its own selective Apprentice School.

High School graduates enter on the basis of academic record. But selectivity doesn't stop there. In classroom and shop, in the drafting room and out in the yard, each man's special abilities are watched and developed.

Some become skilled and versatile machinists. Others become expert electricians or precision tool makers. Many become supervisors. Some earn scholarships for advanced training at colleges and technical schools.

We think the School's a pretty inspiring place, because its end results are good men and good ships.
